

A SACCHARINE EVENT---The Sweetest Ever

:-: Tuesday's Paper Will Tell You All About It :-:

When you go to North Anderson to hear the music this afternoon—SEE THE SPRING

This spring has been in use for ten or fifteen years, but has only recently been walled.

The water is nearly four feet deep and is good and cool.

YOU'LL FIND IT UNDER A BIG, SWEETGUM TREE, IN FRONT AND A LITTLE SOUTH OF THE AIR DOME.

Money in Your Pocket

Is soon spent. A twenty is broken and dwindles to five—then the five is broken—then you are "broke." That same twenty, placed in the bank where you already have a hundred or two, lasts longer and about half of it sticks to the original amount and is saved. Nothing like a Checking Account to make one careful of Expenditures. It has been said that it creates a greater spirit of frugality than even a Savings Account. We welcome both Checking and Savings Accounts.

ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Off for Holiday Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Johnson, and little son, H. B. Jr., left yesterday for Wilson, N. C., where they will spend a few weeks enjoying the cool air of the North Carolina mountains. Mr. Johnson is the popular and efficient agent of the Southern Express company here, and has earned this brief holiday. He is most courteous and obliging in all his dealing with the public, and as a consequence he has many friends who wish him a more enjoyable outing.

More Farmers Report Losses.

People of Anderson county are just beginning to realize how heavy were the losses sustained Thursday by the farmers of this county. It was known that a few farmers lost from the heavy hail storm, but throughout the day Friday and Saturday many planters came to the city and reported that they had been almost wiped out and still more appeared yesterday and told of the disaster that the storm left in its wake. This proved to be one of the worst storms that the county has ever experienced.

Fans Saw the Game Yesterday.

A party of Anderson fans went to Greenville yesterday afternoon to see the baseball game between Anderson and Greenville. This fact is significant because it demonstrates that Anderson people are at least awake to the fact that the local baseball team is not good enough to deserve support. Those making the trip yesterday were Porter A. Winkley, J. H. Godfrey and W. L. Brissey and they traveled in Mr. Brissey's automobile.

Two Couples Joined Hands.

One of the interesting marriages taking place in this county in the last few days was that of Miss Lila Wall of Spartanburg to Malcolm Tate, a well known young planter of Martin township. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. G. Wright and was witnessed by only a few friends of the contracting parties. The bride is an accomplished young woman of Spartanburg and Mr. Tate has many friends in Anderson county.

Preparing To Issue Bonds.

W. A. Sanders, expert engineer of preliminary work of the draining of the Hammond Swamp, said yesterday that he was making good progress on running the land lines in the drainage district. Mr. Sanders is engaged in determining the acreage of the various farmers concerned in the work, so that when the time comes to issue bonds, these can be issued on the acreage basis. The reclaiming of this land for agricultural purposes will be a great thing, for an agricultural standpoint, for Anderson county.

New Doctor Has Father's Practice.

Dr. C. M. Tripp of the Brushy Creek section spent a few hours in Anderson yesterday. Dr. Tripp, although a young man, has made a great impression upon the people of his section since he began attending to his father's practice. When Dr. Tripp was appointed county treasurer and came to Anderson to assume his new duties, he left his practice in the hands of his son and that young man is giving it able attention.

Local Voters Heard Speeches.

A number of Anderson county people went via rail and automobile to Greenwood yesterday to hear the senatorial candidates speak. These voters were anxious to get a line on the candidates before those dignitaries appear here. The campaign party will reach Anderson next Wednesday and indications are that a very large crowd will be in the city for the day.

Mrs. Kelly Was Here Yesterday.

Mrs. Joe Kelly of Williamston whose husband was shot to death by Charles Moore some days ago on the streets of Williamston, was in Anderson yesterday, trying to wind up her husband's estate. The deepest sympathy of Anderson folks is extended to Mrs. Kelly as she has eight small children to care for.

Average Day For The Farmer Beg.

Several Anderson people were standing on a street corner yesterday when a lad from the country trudged by. One of the party remarked that the country boy enjoyed more real life than any other boy in the world and further stated that he was sorry he had not been reared in the country. Whereupon the following calculation was made of the average work that some boys in the country have to do in one day: Gets up at 4 a. m. Feeds the calves. Feeds the pigs. Drives the cows to pasture. Carries in water. Does the churning. Carries water to field hands. Throws corn in feed boxes. Pumps water for stock. Goes to town for groceries. Chases chickens out of the garden. Picks bugs off the potatoes. Goes on errand to neighbor's. Carries more water. Carries more wood. Drives the cows home. Milks them. Washes his feet. Goes to bed. The rest of his time is his own. He has nothing to do till tomorrow.

Plenty of Women But Men Are Scarce.

Several young men in Anderson county have received a letter from the United States Civil Service commission in which the statement is made that more male stenographers and typewriters are in great demand by the government. The letter says that there are more than enough females wanting the job but there are not enough men to fill the vacancies. The letter goes on to say that the usual entrance salaries are $840 and $900 a year but that there is a reasonable chance of promotion. If there are any local boys wanting one of these jobs they may write to the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington.

Ladies Free And Children Also.

The fact that ladies will be admitted free to the baseball game at Leuna Vista park from this time on, and children under the age of 12 years, will doubtless increase the attendance to a considerable extent at the three games to be played here Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. Every child under 12 years will be admitted free while between the ages of 12 and 15 the small charge of 10 cents will be made. This is regarded as a happy idea by the baseball management because many a little fellow likes to see the game but hasn't the money to pay for it.

He Believed In The Old Adage.

Clarence Hale was escorted from the court room yesterday morning after he had been convicted of transporting whiskey and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and five minutes after that time he was speeding away. Hale evidently believed in the adage, "he who runs away may live to sell another day," and therefore grabbed "Old Opportunity" around the neck when "Opp" came by. The young man asked the police guard if he might step around the corner to get a drink of water and when the officer granted his permission Hale stepped in a hurry. He will doubtless be recaptured and this time it will go harder with him than before.

Wanting To Help Anderson Voters.

While it may be that some of the club rolls provided for the registration of Anderson county voters are not in places as convenient as they might be, still there are at least a few connected with the books, not only willing but anxious to have the voters enrolled. The North Anderson club book has been brought down into the city and is now at the county treasurer's office, where R. A. Gentry will be pleased to assist any voter of that club in getting his name properly enrolled. In several other precincts the gentlemen in charge of the work are taking equally as much interest.

Will Appear Before Board.

Claude Harris, a well known young Anderson man, will go to Greenville tomorrow when he will appear before the State Board and stand re-examination for a pharmacist's license. Mr. Harris was graduated this season

That he was selected for such a position as soon as graduated, speaks well indeed for Mr. Harris and friends of his are proud of this honor conferred upon him. There will also be one or two other young men to go from Anderson for the examination.

Killed Two Birds With Single Stone.

J. L. E. Jones enjoys a reputation around Anderson of being able to do most anything he sets out to accomplish, but few Anderson people knew that he was a house mover of many parts until Friday night. J. H. Wright, a well known Anderson county farmer, came to the city last Friday afternoon with a traction engine, planning to haul some lumber back to his home yesterday. When Mr. Jones saw Mr. Wright the idea occurred to him that he would move a newly acquired house with the engine and so the plans and preparations were made at once. The part of the house moved was 16 x 18 feet and the engine, parked it out of Clarence Osborne's back yard and hauled it to Mr. Jones' place on North Fant street in exactly 30 minutes. The ceiling of the house was undisturbed and no windows were broken during the course of the house's march. The route followed is well over one-quarter mile and it was quite an accomplishment to get the work done in such a short time.

OBITUARY

Lewis Smith

We were grieved when we heard of the death of our neighbor, Mr. Lewis Smith, which occurred on the 29th of June. The funeral was attended by a large number of friends and an impressive discourse was delivered by Rev. Henry Martin.

Mr. Smith was twice married. His first wife was Miss Amanda Wardlaw and by this union were four children, Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. Cater Erskine, Mrs. Newton Shirley and one son who was killed when quite young, many years ago at Mr. Frank Hammond's gin house.

His last wife was Miss Rosa Long who survives him with three young children, Lewis, Vinnie and Joe. He also leaves four sisters, Mrs. Greenville Kay, Mrs. Brown Wardlaw and Mrs. Amanda Smith. In their bereavement we tender our sympathy.

At the opening of the civil war, Mr. Smith was among the first to volunteer his services and attached himself to the gallant command, The Second Regiment of Rifles, Col. John V. Moore, Company L, commanded by Dr. Elip Brown. He was wounded at Spotsylvania, having been shot in the breast. A Testament in his pocket he always thought saved his life. He was at the surrender and made a brave and true soldier.

Peaceful be his last rest for "he sleeps his last sleep, he has fought his last battle."

No sorrow shall awake him to glory again.

A Friend.

THE DAY OF DAYS

Famous Players. An extravaganza of metropolitan adventure in four reels. Featuring Ceril Scott the noted actor. This story was written by Louis Joseph Vance, basing his exciting novel on Oriental fatalism, which assigns to every man his "day of days" wherein he shall range the skies and plumb the abyss, alternately its lord and slave. The story gets down to the heart of New York, and feels the "pulse" of the metropolis throughout. This is a powerful drama with New York as a background at night.

Tomato Juice for Stains. Tomato juice is said to be successful in many cases in removing ink-stains from white materials, such as handkerchiefs, muslin, etc. It must, however, be done as soon as possible after the mishap occurred. A clean piece of blotting paper should be laid under the stain, and a slice of raw, ripe tomato rubbed over the surface, fresh pieces of blotting paper being substituted until the ink spot has vanished.
